Visitors Guide
Step Into Blacksburg and you’ll find excitement, adventure, and every form of entertainment imaginable. There’s truly something for everyone. Arts, education, dining, recreation, technology, and more. It’s a place with small town charm and big university vibe, a place that offers unmatched beauty and a uniqueness all of its own. With hundreds of outstanding retail and dining establishments, numerous art galleries, performance halls, museums, and lush green parks, it’s easy to see the allure of Blacksburg.

Blacksburg is also known nationally as an ideal place to raise a family, a hub for research and entrepreneurship, and for the unmatched athletic and academic achievements of the Virginia Tech Hokies.
Downtown, you'll find wide brick sidewalks that line the streets flanked on each side by Victorian street lamps, hanging flower baskets, and park benches. In the fall, you’ll hear the rustle of the trees, feel the cool mountain air and enjoy a cup of locally roasted coffee as Blacksburg comes alive for game day or an afternoon at the Farmers Market.

Blacksburg is known as a Creative Village because of its commitment to the arts and its reputation as a robust technology town. You'll find numerous art galleries, a legendary Art Deco movie theater screening films and hosting live events, and diverse creative offerings through Virginia Tech.
The Blacksburg Partnership is a non-profit, independent economic development organization focused on projects that attract visitors and retail prospects. Partnership projects include the development of property, revitalization of retail districts, special events, and community arts endeavors such as Gobble de Art and the Collaborative for the Arts. The Partnership is also known for two signature events that take place every year: Blacksburg Fork and Cork, a food, wine, and art extravaganza and Blacksburg Brew Do, a craft beer festival.
